

Anachronisms Revisited

A CLASSICAL JOURNEY FROM BAROQUE TO TANGO

In 2015 composer Michael Dooley presented "Anachronisms", a concert and CD which featured a series of 11 original piano works composed in the style of various historical periods.

For this special 10 year anniversary concert, original and new performers will be joined by the Grevillea Quartet, playing 4 of the original works now arranged for strings and piano.

Featuring:

Andrew Rumsey, Aaron Chew, Anthony Smith, Emily Leong, Jennifer Hou,
And Michael Dooley
Plus The Grevillea String Quartet

“...A grand, emotional, romantic musical journey...”

Canberra Critics Circle (2015)

“...Works of great quality and freshness, like new spring flowers on much loved plants...”

Canberra City News (2016)

All proceeds will go towards Anglican Aid's project to build a school for displaced children and orphans in Jos, Nigeria.

1 November 2025 | 7:30PM

The Australian Centre for Christianity & Culture

15 Blackall St, Barton ACT 2600

Tickets $35 | $25 concession | $80 Family

Tickets available at www.trybooking.com/DFGUC

